Volunteer Core Oral Communication (OC) Rubric for Student Assessment

OC Outcome 1	1-Ineffective	2-Adequate	3-Effective	4-Outstanding Students will demonstrate	Does not present	Presents with minimal	Demonstrates above	Constitutes a genuinely individual the ability to speak clearly	information, arguments,	organization – a clear	average skill in using	contribution to the audience's and effectively.	ideas, or evidence	purpose supported by	language, organization,	thinking. Demonstrates clearly, concisely, and	main ideas that are	supporting evidence to	exceptional skill in using the logically.	easily identified.	engage and challenge the	communication elements to thinking of audience	create audience understanding members.	and acceptance of a complex viewpoint.
OC Outcome 2	1-Ineffective	2-Adequate	3-Effective	4-Outstanding
Students will demonstrate	Selects information and	Selects some	Selects information and	Selects full range of information the ability to locate and use	makes use of sources	information appropriate	evidence that are	and evidence that clearly relevant, credible evidence	that are inappropriate to	for the purpose and the	appropriate for the	addresses alternatives or to support ideas.	the purpose and the	audience but does not	purpose, audience, and	opposing perspectives and makes audience.	make full use of relevant	setting.	use this information to fully sources.		support claims.
OC Outcome 3	1-Ineffective	2-Adequate	3-Effective	4-Outstanding oc outcome s	I menecuve	2 Aucquate	5 2.1.000.100	4 Outstanding Students will demonstrate	Reads presentation;	Uses extemporaneous	Uses extemporaneous	Makes use of a truly
		•		Makes use of a truly extemporaneous style of Students will demonstrate the ability to present oral information effectively to	Reads presentation;	Uses extemporaneous	Uses extemporaneous style delivery during most of presentation; projects	Makes use of a truly extemporaneous style of delivery; the delivery is fully
Students will demonstrate the ability to present oral	Reads presentation; frequently uses filler words ((uh, um, so, and, like, etc.); cannot be	Uses extemporaneous style of delivery	Uses extemporaneous style delivery during most	Makes use of a truly extemporaneous style of
Students will demonstrate the ability to present oral information effectively to different audiences, shaping message, organization,	Reads presentation; frequently uses filler words ((uh, um, so, and, like, etc.); cannot be heard by all members of	Uses extemporaneous style of delivery occasionally during the presentation; projects voice adequately but	Uses extemporaneous style delivery during most of presentation; projects voice well; makes use of natural body gestures;	Makes use of a truly extemporaneous style of delivery; the delivery is fully adapted to the audience and the occasion; adapts the delivery
Students will demonstrate the ability to present oral information effectively to different audiences, shaping message, organization, language choices, and	Reads presentation; frequently uses filler words ((uh, um, so, and, like, etc.); cannot be heard by all members of the audience, does not	Uses extemporaneous style of delivery occasionally during the presentation; projects voice adequately but speaks in a monotone;	Uses extemporaneous style delivery during most of presentation; projects voice well; makes use of natural body gestures; makes frequent use of	Makes use of a truly extemporaneous style of delivery; the delivery is fully adapted to the audience and the occasion; adapts the delivery during the presentation based on
Students will demonstrate the ability to present oral information effectively to different audiences, shaping message, organization, language choices, and delivery techniques to	Reads presentation; frequently uses filler words ((uh, um, so, and, like, etc.); cannot be heard by all members of the audience, does not use hand gestures	Uses extemporaneous style of delivery occasionally during the presentation; projects voice adequately but speaks in a monotone; occasionally uses filler	Uses extemporaneous style delivery during most of presentation; projects voice well; makes use of natural body gestures; makes frequent use of changes in tone and pace	Makes use of a truly extemporaneous style of delivery; the delivery is fully adapted to the audience and the occasion; adapts the delivery during the presentation based on audience response; makes use of
Students will demonstrate the ability to present oral information effectively to different audiences, shaping message, organization, language choices, and	Reads presentation; frequently uses filler words ((uh, um, so, and, like, etc.); cannot be heard by all members of the audience, does not use hand gestures appropriately; wears	Uses extemporaneous style of delivery occasionally during the presentation; projects voice adequately but speaks in a monotone; occasionally uses filler words; makes	Uses extemporaneous style delivery during most of presentation; projects voice well; makes use of natural body gestures; makes frequent use of changes in tone and pace of delivery to maintain	Makes use of a truly extemporaneous style of delivery; the delivery is fully adapted to the audience and the occasion; adapts the delivery during the presentation based on audience response; makes use of outstanding eye contact with all
Students will demonstrate the ability to present oral information effectively to different audiences, shaping message, organization, language choices, and delivery techniques to	Reads presentation; frequently uses filler words ((uh, um, so, and, like, etc.); cannot be heard by all members of the audience, does not use hand gestures	Uses extemporaneous style of delivery occasionally during the presentation; projects voice adequately but speaks in a monotone; occasionally uses filler words; makes inconsistent eye contact	Uses extemporaneous style delivery during most of presentation; projects voice well; makes use of natural body gestures; makes frequent use of changes in tone and pace of delivery to maintain audience interest; makes	Makes use of a truly extemporaneous style of delivery; the delivery is fully adapted to the audience and the occasion; adapts the delivery during the presentation based on audience response; makes use of outstanding eye contact with all audience members; makes use of
Students will demonstrate the ability to present oral information effectively to different audiences, shaping message, organization, language choices, and delivery techniques to correspond with purpose and	Reads presentation; frequently uses filler words ((uh, um, so, and, like, etc.); cannot be heard by all members of the audience, does not use hand gestures appropriately; wears	Uses extemporaneous style of delivery occasionally during the presentation; projects voice adequately but speaks in a monotone; occasionally uses filler words; makes	Uses extemporaneous style delivery during most of presentation; projects voice well; makes use of natural body gestures; makes frequent use of changes in tone and pace of delivery to maintain	Makes use of a truly extemporaneous style of delivery; the delivery is fully adapted to the audience and the occasion; adapts the delivery during the presentation based on audience response; makes use of outstanding eye contact with all audience members; makes use of natural body gestures and
Students will demonstrate the ability to present oral information effectively to different audiences, shaping message, organization, language choices, and delivery techniques to correspond with purpose and	Reads presentation; frequently uses filler words ((uh, um, so, and, like, etc.); cannot be heard by all members of the audience, does not use hand gestures appropriately; wears clothing inappropriate	Uses extemporaneous style of delivery occasionally during the presentation; projects voice adequately but speaks in a monotone; occasionally uses filler words; makes inconsistent eye contact with the audience; attempts to wear attire	Uses extemporaneous style delivery during most of presentation; projects voice well; makes use of natural body gestures; makes frequent use of changes in tone and pace of delivery to maintain audience interest; makes appropriate use of visual aids; wears appropriate	Makes use of a truly extemporaneous style of delivery; the delivery is fully adapted to the audience and the occasion; adapts the delivery during the presentation based on audience response; makes use of outstanding eye contact with all audience members; makes use of natural body gestures and movements; makes effective,
Students will demonstrate the ability to present oral information effectively to different audiences, shaping message, organization, language choices, and delivery techniques to correspond with purpose and	Reads presentation; frequently uses filler words ((uh, um, so, and, like, etc.); cannot be heard by all members of the audience, does not use hand gestures appropriately; wears clothing inappropriate	Uses extemporaneous style of delivery occasionally during the presentation; projects voice adequately but speaks in a monotone; occasionally uses filler words; makes inconsistent eye contact with the audience; attempts to wear attire appropriate to the	Uses extemporaneous style delivery during most of presentation; projects voice well; makes use of natural body gestures; makes frequent use of changes in tone and pace of delivery to maintain audience interest; makes appropriate use of visual	Makes use of a truly extemporaneous style of delivery; the delivery is fully adapted to the audience and the occasion; adapts the delivery during the presentation based on audience response; makes use of outstanding eye contact with all audience members; makes use of natural body gestures and movements; makes effective, innovative use visual aids;
Students will demonstrate the ability to present oral information effectively to different audiences, shaping message, organization, language choices, and delivery techniques to correspond with purpose and	Reads presentation; frequently uses filler words ((uh, um, so, and, like, etc.); cannot be heard by all members of the audience, does not use hand gestures appropriately; wears clothing inappropriate	Uses extemporaneous style of delivery occasionally during the presentation; projects voice adequately but speaks in a monotone; occasionally uses filler words; makes inconsistent eye contact with the audience; attempts to wear attire	Uses extemporaneous style delivery during most of presentation; projects voice well; makes use of natural body gestures; makes frequent use of changes in tone and pace of delivery to maintain audience interest; makes appropriate use of visual aids; wears appropriate	Makes use of a truly extemporaneous style of delivery; the delivery is fully adapted to the audience and the occasion; adapts the delivery during the presentation based on audience response; makes use of outstanding eye contact with all audience members; makes use of natural body gestures and movements; makes effective, innovative use visual aids; establishes genuine rapport with
Students will demonstrate the ability to present oral information effectively to different audiences, shaping message, organization, language choices, and delivery techniques to correspond with purpose and	Reads presentation; frequently uses filler words ((uh, um, so, and, like, etc.); cannot be heard by all members of the audience, does not use hand gestures appropriately; wears clothing inappropriate	Uses extemporaneous style of delivery occasionally during the presentation; projects voice adequately but speaks in a monotone; occasionally uses filler words; makes inconsistent eye contact with the audience; attempts to wear attire appropriate to the	Uses extemporaneous style delivery during most of presentation; projects voice well; makes use of natural body gestures; makes frequent use of changes in tone and pace of delivery to maintain audience interest; makes appropriate use of visual aids; wears appropriate	Makes use of a truly extemporaneous style of delivery; the delivery is fully adapted to the audience and the occasion; adapts the delivery during the presentation based on audience response; makes use of outstanding eye contact with all audience members; makes use of natural body gestures and movements; makes effective, innovative use visual aids;